About People
And Things
BY C. B. McDOWELL

I HEARD 'EM SAY:

Isiah Maddox said he met a man Sunday whom he had not seen in the past 46 years. R. R. Borders said that was nothing, he saw a man whom he had never seen before.

At the football game Friday night I was sitting next to a man from Enterprise. When Fred Rice made one of his long runs, the Enterprise roster shouted in a loud voice that Rice is as good as Dyess ever was. I remembered that old proverb about silence being golden and kept my mouth shut.

Leon LeCompt said The Clipper was in error last week when William Crowe in his column "Under the Study Lamp" wrote that John the Baptist was thrown in prison for proclaiming Jesus was the Messiah. Mr. LeCompt said John the Baptist was imprisoned for rebuking Queen Jezebel for living in adultery. The Scriptures bear Mr. LeCompt out in his contention.

DISCOUNT CONFERENCE
Rev. Ralph R. Hendricks, Mrs. J. M. Garrett, Mrs. W. R. Crook, Mrs. Nell Cooper, Mrs. L. S. Rainer Sr. and Mrs. C. B. McDowell represented the Elba Methodist Church at the District Conference of the Andalusia District held Thursday at Blue Lake, 15 miles southeast of Andalusia.

STREET PAVING
Commissioner Flournoy Whitman reported Tuesday morning that he had been assured by the State Highway Department that work of widening and paving the street from the Elba Ice plant to the Cooks Grocery on Troy Highway would be completed as soon as possible. His is heartening news as, owing to the legal controversy on administration buying of road-building materials, it was feared that it would not be possible to complete the project for some time.

The necessary drive has been very inconvenient and bothersome to the countless motorists who travel this street.

SERVE OYSTERS
Approximately 30 members of the Men's Club of the Elba Methodist Church enjoyed an oyster supper Monday evening, prepared and served by the men themselves.

Lamar Rainer Jr. presided over an interesting and inspirational program. Glen Vaughan gave the devotion.

Marvin Martin of Enterprise talked on "Stewardship and Tithing." Rev. Ralph Hendricks gave the benediction.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS
Walter J. Compton et al. to Charles and Thelma Dixon, J. L. and Alma Whitman to Dallas Donaldson, Eunora Farris to City of Elba, Mrs. Beattie Braswell et al. to City of Elba.

F. H. Murphree and wife to Joel B. Murphree.

C. O. Reeves to G. C. Curley and wife.

Mrs. Fannie Hudson to Giles W. and Kate Hudson.

MATH COOK RETURNS
"Uncle" Math Cook returned home Sunday from Dothan where he has been visiting his son for several weeks. Prior to that time he was confined to a hospital for two weeks, undergoing treatment for a heart ailment.

Mr. Cook was able to be on the Elba streets Monday morning and he said Elba and its people never looked so good to him before. He said he thinks he will make his home with his sister, Mrs. Odie Dyess, northwest of town, for awhile. His new place will be glad to learn that he is much improved in health.

THEODORE STRICKLAND
Theodore Strickland, prominent and highly respected farmer of Brantley community, died Oct. 9 in Luerne hospital following an illness of two years.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Mary Lee Strickland; a daughter, Mrs. Roland Adkins; four brothers, Maurice, Mack, Newton and Jack Strickland; four daughters, Mrs. Heybeck, Mrs. W. C. Godwin, Mrs. Aline King and Mrs. F. Smart.

Funeral services were held from Bullock Baptist Church on Oct. 10 with Rev. Ralph Hendricks officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery with Hayes Funeral Home directing.

Record Road Building

As of Sept. 1, 1956, the State Highway Dept. had under construction in Federal and State projects during the 10 previous months, a record-breaking approximate $80 million in road construction.

A state highway official pointed out that this did not include more than $14 million worth of road construction being carried out by the counties in cooperation with the State Highway Department through its farm-to-market road program.

Other appropriations were made by the commissioners' court when they met in Enterprise Monday provided that the assistant maintain his office in Elba and the county agent spend two days a week here.

SEEN MONDAY morning with a flock of about 25 wild turkeys was Ed Cooper, Coffee County game warden. He was in a truck from the State Conservation Department.

The turkeys are a second batch to be put out in this vicinity. Ed said hunters to refrain from shooting the birds (there is a fine for each bird shot) and the birds will multiply enough so that in future years a season on the birds can be held in this county. Everyone's cooperation will be necessary, though.

Reunion Held by McArthurs

By C. B. McDowell

For about a year I have been promising Mr. & Mrs. Luther Vaughan that I would inspect their new home on the Troy highway. My wife, son, Roy E. McDowell, daughter, Mrs. Mary Newton, and I went to the Vaughan home Sunday afternoon and butted right into a family reunion.

We were urged to come in and join the party consisting of the members of the McArthur family and their connections. Mrs. Vaughan was the hostess.

SOLVE - A - CRIME

By A. C. Gordon

You look down at the body of the beautiful young woman, lying on the floor of the hotel bedroom. She is dressed in a low-cut black evening dress, but her nylon-clad feet are shoeless. "Do you know of any reason at all why your wife should have been killed?"

"Well, our friends will tell you that Ruth and I hadn't been getting along very well here at—"

"Oh, yes, I came in at about four o'clock—almost three hours ago. I was in the sitting room, waiting for Ruth... when I heard the shot, I rushed in here... found her like this. She was dead. Still, I wasn't shocked. Then I phoned you.'"

"Why do you suspect Jerry Granger of killing his wife?"

"In the first place, you found the safety catch of the gun on the person shooting himself wouldn't after firing the gun. Granger must have instinctively—and thought—'Why do you suspect Jerry Granger of killing his wife?'"

Patterson Had Better Look to His 'Branch Head' Votes

The proverbial worm has turned in the past two years and where it was once popular to support the poison administration, it is now just the opposite. Plaudits of the crowd go to him who smears the knights in shining armor who are saving Alabama from the alleged depredations of the administration is John Patterson, the attorney general for the State of Alabama.

Merits of the accusations and counter-accusations on administration purchasing can't be weighed by a weekly newspaper editor 85 miles from the scene of the battle. This is especially true when he has to spend 55 to 65 hours a week writing, producing and distributing his own publication. Accurate analysis of the situation is when primary time rolls around in two years. Right or wrong, to them merits of John Patterson's case against the administration don't mean as much as their pet road project.

Take property owners in Elba, New Brockton and Kinston. The highway department had made arrangements to give these towns blacktopping on many of their streets at reasonable prices. Now their commissioner tells them the improvements are indefinitely postponed.

In Elba widening of the Troy highway from Cook's store to the ice plant had started. The road was torn up and a detour around the construction established. As long as work was going forward, residents realized the inconvenience of the detour was necessary. Now their commissioner tells them the highway department might not have enough black top to finish the improvement and the detour might be required until a long legal tangle gets unwound. That isn't funny. And the longer the situation lasts, the more resentment will be built up against John Patterson.

That's how it is in the branchheads. Patterson, if you have any gubernatorial ambitions, if you behave you to get quick action in the courts. "The monkey is on your back" insofar as stopping road building is concerned.

That's all they know. That and the fact that Patterson, if you have any gubernatorial ambitions, if you behave you to get quick action in the courts. "The monkey is on your back" insofar as stopping road building is concerned.

Faster Defrosting
To speed up the defrosting process of your refrigerator, turn it to the "off" position. Empty the ice cube trays, refill with hot water, then put back into the refrigerator, and close refrigerator door. In about 15 minutes the refrigerator will have defrosted to the point where the ice can be scaled off. Reset refrigerator.

Shif Shoes
If a little petroleum jelly is applied to stiff leather shoes, it will make them soft and pliable. The jelly should be rubbed into the leather with a piece of flannel.

The Coffee Pot
To clean out a coffee pot, put a tablespoon of soda into it and fill with water. Boil for twenty minutes. Then pour out the soda and water and boil fresh water. Dry in the air, and, if possible, in the sunlight.

Broken Candle
If one of your tall candles has split through the center, light an old candle of the same shade and let the drippings of wax seal the tip of each finger.

Color Testing
To test materials for color fastness, fasten a scrap of the test fabric along with the colored trimmings to be used, such as a necktie or tape, to a piece of white cloth. Then scratch with and iron the material. If the white cloth has picked up any color from the fabric or trimming, the fading will be the same when the garment is made.

Frying Eggs
If the eggs pop white frying, sprinkle a tablespoon of oil or a little cornstarch, in the hot grease and break the eggs into the oil. This also adds flavor to the eggs.

Cleaning Gift Frames
Gift frames can be cleaned by dipping a soft cloth in kerosene and rubbing it gently over the soiled spots. Repeat several times if necessary.

SOLVE - A - CRIME

By A. C. Gordon

You look down at the body of the beautiful young woman, lying on the floor of the hotel bedroom. She is dressed in a low-cut black evening dress, but her nylon-clad feet are shoeless. There is a bullet hole in her right temple, and a gleaming .38 automatic lies on the floor near her outstretched right hand. You carefully pick up the gun in a handkerchief, sniff the barrel and verify the fact that it has recently been fired. With a corner of your handkerchief, you test the safety latch, moving it, then, back to its original position.

You turn to the husband of the dead woman, Jerry Granger, who stands on the other side of the room nervously puffing on a cigarette. You ask him for his story. "Turning, and—stricken eyes on you, he begins: 'Ruth and I were getting ready to go out to dinner this evening. She was in the bedroom, and I was in the living room. I was putting the finishing touch on her make-up. When I heard the shot, I rushed in here... found her like this. She was dead. Still, I wasn't shocked. Then I phoned you.'"

"Do you know of any reason at all why your wife should have been killed?"

"Well, our friends will tell you that Ruth and I hadn't been getting along very well here at—"

"Oh, yes, I came in at about four o'clock—almost three hours ago. I was in the sitting room, waiting for Ruth... when I heard the shot, I rushed in here... found her like this. She was dead. Still, I wasn't shocked. Then I phoned you.'"

"Why do you suspect Jerry Granger of killing his wife?"

"In the first place, you found the safety catch of the gun on the person shooting himself wouldn't after firing the gun. Granger must have instinctively—and thought—'Why do you suspect Jerry Granger of killing his wife?'"

There is a question in your mind as to whether everything was happening enough between the couple for them to be going out together for dinner. Granger told you he was waiting for his wife to finish dressing—yet you found her in evening dress, while he was dressed in street clothes.

UNDER THE STUDY LAMP

BY WILLIAM CROWE

"These ought ye to have done, and yet not leave the other undone." Matthew 23:23

They tell us that myopia is an eye condition that causes a lessening of the range of vision. We hope it is not stretching the imagination too far to suggest that the eye trouble mentioned has a parallel in the moral make-up of a good many people.

It was at least a serious deficiency that Jesus was referring to when upbraiding the Pharisees for their nearsightedness in the practice of their religion. He was warning them not to permit meticulous attention to little duties to blind their eyes to more important responsibilities.

When young Jimmy's mother starts him to Sunday school on the Sabbath morning, she is exceedingly careful to see that his clothes are spick and span, and that his face is washed eyes on behind the ears. But that Jimmy is ready with a well-prepared lesson for the day does not appear to mother to be a matter of so much importance. Of course that is a kind of rough hewn parable, but does not the fact remain that too many parents are giving far more attention to the temporal than to the eternal concerns of their offspring? It is not difficult to fancy that if Jesus were discussing Jimmy's future with his mother, He would say, "This you should have done, but you should not have left the other undone." Beauty of character far surpasses elegance of dress. Again, a boy goes to college, a technical institution perhaps.

"MAGNIFICENT PROMISES ARE ALWAYS TO BE SUSPECTED"

There appears to be a growing tendency toward advertising seemingly low bargain prices by certain retail, television and door-to-door sales people. The products they are usually made by a manufacturer unknown to you, or newcomers to drug manufacturing.

Before buying such medicines or vitamins, make certain these magnificent promises are true. Only a pharmacy is licensed, and regularly state inspected to provide you. Usually the prices we charge for comparable quality are less.

From Our Early Files

Unemployment is at a low ebb in Elba. With good-sized crews of men at work on the levee and paving projects most of the idle labor has been taken care of. Everybody has a healthy income. Post picking is closely following the cotton picking and ginning season, giving employment to large numbers of persons, so it would seem that conditions in general are much brighter than they have been for quite some time.

When the members of the Elba Chamber of Commerce at their meeting Tuesday night voted not to change to a Rotary Club, the Elba Chamber of Commerce was a wonderful organization, but it should not take the place of or supplant a Chamber of Commerce. In a small city like Elba, some of the best citizens of the community are in a city like Elba every line of business should be represented 100 per cent in a civic organization. Another objectionable feature is the $100 initial fee required for a charter and the subsequent monthly dues. The Elba Chamber of Commerce is functioning quite efficiently, and can be made to be much more profitable by getting more of our citizens interested in the organization which can be made to mean so much to our community.

The popular brand of snappers, "Lucky Strike" is nothing to sneeze at with the lucky strike out of the city of Elba every line of business should be represented 100 per cent in a civic organization. Another objectionable feature is the $100 initial fee required for a charter and the subsequent monthly dues. The Elba Chamber of Commerce is functioning quite efficiently, and can be made to be much more profitable by getting more of our citizens interested in the organization which can be made to mean so much to our community.

Just before The Clipper goes to press, Superintendent Dixon rushes in to inform us that the committee that has been selected to represent Elba at the Elba High School will not have a certain term this season.

Attorney J. C. Fleming, according to James Fleming, a local fisherman, James let out a yall, telling him to look at the snake he had just caught. Fleming, who was out fishing, came upon a King Mackerel that weighed 45 pounds and was 15 feet long, but he says he stated it weighed 15 pounds and was 15 inches long, and he further stated that he had part of the fish at his home to prove it. He also told us to be thrilling experience on member of the party had in capturing a 100-pound tiger shark. He admitted it was only half the size of the 200-pound shark that had been taken at Panama City, but that a 100-pounder is big enough for him.

Sheff Brice Paul and Deputy Lee Livings killed a huge rattlesnake Monday afternoon. It was crossing the highway and measured nearly six feet in length, but had 13 rattlers and a button.
